The best place to begin is just opening your Bible for yourself. It is vital that you study the word of God for yourself, don't depend on devotional books, sermons, or podcasts for your main source of growth though they are good. Be a willing student of the word (2 Timothy 2:15).

How does a woman of the word impact the world?

Her life is a testament of the character and faithfulness of God to all who see her. She encourages the next generation to seek and follow God with all of their heart.
